

1. We respect your privacy. We promise not to sell, rent, or otherwise give out your name or any personal information to anyone else at any time, except as necessary to process your donation.
2. We believe in full disclosure and promise to keep our annual reports and financial statements available to you at any time.
3. Our stories and photos about rescued pets and soldiers depicted in our communications are all absolutely real. Each story is about actual people and animals, and is but one of many successful rescues and aided veterans that your support has helped make possible.
4. We respect your right to honest answers, regardless of the questions you may have. We promise to answer all your questions promptly and truthfully.
5. We promise to listen to what you have to say. Please feel free to email us at any time at VeteranDogs@pawsandstripes.org.
6. We greatly appreciate the trust that you, as the donor, have placed in us. We promise that your donations will always be applied toward the goals we have stated.
7. We promise to acknowledge your donations in a timely manner. You will always receive a receipt for your donation, and your donations to Paws and Stripes are tax-deductible in accordance with existing federal income tax regulations.
8. We believe that every pet deserves a lifelong, loving home, and we promise to only use dogs in our program that need homes, and never pay for or breed animals.
9. We truly believe that every disabled veteran deserves a service animal, and while PTSD is our target disability in veterans, as it is become a great issue today, we do believe that any veteran with any disability can be helped. We promise to continually strive to help as many dogs and veterans as we can.
